

If K-Love was to be replaced by a local station, we would be very disappointed. It is the only station we listen to: in our home, our vehicle and online. We love the music, of course, but even better is the lack of poorly made, local advertisements. If someone wants or needs local content, that is easy enough to find. K-Love needs to remain for those of us who choose this great station over the local mediocre ones.